VISION STATEMENT

St. Mark Lutheran Church glorifies God and makes disciples by making caring connections with the people of our community.

The Echo of Sacrifice

What Jesus did at the cross released a shock wave that's still being felt today. The power of His sacrifice still echoes through our world. You can hear it in so many great stories: The Great Lion Aslan lying down on the Stone Table; The hobbit Frodo Baggins bearing the One Ring to Mount Doom; Colonel Robert Gould Shaw leading the 54th Infantry into battle in the movie "Glory"; at a deep level people understand there is nothing as powerful as sacrifice. You and I know that, ultimately, Jesus is the one to whom all these sacrifice stories point.

It's also why we rightly honor those who are willing to stand in harm's way for us; why we owe a debt of gratitude to those in our military and those who serve as police and firefighters and first responders. Their vocations are built on a willingness to sacrifice; their lives echo the dynamite blast of the cross.

And it's also why our lives as followers of Jesus are incomplete if that echo is not heard in our words and actions. If it has dawned on you just how much God sacrificed to obtain you, will you not be inspired to sacrifice for others? Will you not be willing to appear foolish in the eyes of the world? Will you not follow Jesus in setting aside control and glory...setting aside economic or personal advantage...setting aside popularity and approval in order to give to someone else—to help them gain the goodness of God?

Welcome to the Church Staff

The Elders have approved the hiring of Kim Ryan as our next church secretary. She is a graduate of Concordia University, Chicago with a BA in Computer Information Systems. We thank the Lord that she has stepped forward to work with the church staff. We also thank Karen Rudar for her years of service in the church office, and wish her and her husband well in their retirement.

GROUP MINISTRIES

Book Club: No News is (Indeed) Good News

No future titles are available at this time because they are being compiled at our late May meeting. Keep your eyes peeled to the church bulletin, website and FYI emails for upcoming titles and meeting dates. The updated information will be in the July church newsletter. If you do not have access to any of these sources, please contact Sue Matzke at 440-346-5588 or raggedymom@gmail.com.

We would like to let the congregation know that Caring & Sharing continues on in remembrance of our dear sister in Christ, Joan Shaw. If you know of anyone or you yourself find that you are in need, please reach out to one us. We are here to assist you in time of need. This is a confidential process, so please do not hesitate to ask for our help.

Road Trip to Kentucky June 14-16

It's almost time for the St. Mark retreat in Kentucky!

In Acts 2:44-47 we read that believers spent their days "meeting together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people." It is important for believers to be together, share together, learn together. Through these activities of support and encouragement we are strengthened to go out and share the Gospel as called disciples of Jesus Christ.

From June 14 - 16, 30+ St. Mark members will be heading down to Kentucky for a weekend retreat. We will be visiting the Creation Museum and the Ark Encounter but will also gather at a local church to support and encourage each other in our faith walk.

We welcome your prayers for all of the families that will be traveling to Kentucky for this retreat.

Northeast Zone Fall Retreat Saturday, September 21

"Women of His Story" is the theme of the one-day retreat, once again scheduled to be held at the YMCA Outdoor Family Center in Perry. Check the Women's League board for a poster with more information, and the table for registration packets with schedule, ingathering and session information, as well as the registration form itself. The cost is $25.00, and includes continental breakfast and a light lunch. The registration deadline is September 4. If you have any questions, contact Beth Christopherson at 440-729-4506. Mark your calendars now, as attendance is limited.

Stephen Ministry

A number of books dealing with the difficulties of life are now in our library. All of these books have been written by Kenneth Haugk who is an ordained Lutheran Pastor, a PhD in Clinical Psychology and founder of "Stephen Ministries".

- Christian Care Giving: This book describes what makes Christian caregiving distinctive and how it can become a way of life.
- Speaking the Truth in Love describes how to be an assertive Christian.
- Cancer: Now What is a practical guide for those with cancer and their ones.
- Don't Sing Songs to a Heavy Heart: How to relate to those who are suffering.
- When and How to use Mental Health Resources: A Guide for Stephen Ministers, Stephen Leaders and Church Staff: Know when and how to involve mental health professionals.

These books are for those seeking answers and guidance during difficult times.

Red Cross Blood Drive

Summer months bring critical blood shortages! Please donate blood June 19 at St Mark Fellowship Hall, 1:00–7:00 p.m. A calendar is in the narthex. Or go to www.redcrossblood.org to schedule your appointment. Also, on that site, is a frequently asked question section that gives lots of information about qualifications / restrictions for donations. Invite your friends and family and join together to save lives! Volunteers are needed to serve snacks and welcome the community to our church. Contact Donna Robinson for more information (Dmrobinson2@gmail.com or 216- 496-2279).

Growing in Grace... Grace Grant Reports April

- I received a Grace Grant in April, and it has sat here while I decided how best to use it. I took the $5.00 Grace Grant, and added some of our money to it to donate to a family who lost their teenage daughter to suicide. It is my hope and prayer that God will use this tragedy for good in some way.
- We donated this Grace Grant and added to it for WomenSafe.
- Thank you for thinking of me. I gave my grant to Ministry in Mission for the upkeep of the seven residents in the Jacmel, Haiti Senior Home. Hopefully, they will buy a Bible for their newly baptized senior.
- Today, my husband and I had lunch in a busy restaurant. Our waitress was pleasant but seemed tired. I decided to give her the $5.00 in addition to my usual tip. As I handed it to her, I wished her a Blessed Easter. She thanked me with a big smile on her face.
- While cleaning a drawer recently, I found some money in an envelope. It was a sizeable amount. But for the life of me, I could not remember why the money was there, or what its purpose was. The same day, I received a Growing in Grace envelope. All of a sudden, my mystery money had a purpose. I combined the two envelopes and headed off for the 50% off sale at Walmart. I purchased a trunk load of Easter baskets for the St. Mark Easter Basket project for next year. It never ceases to amaze me how God provided at just the right time!

Thank you, God the Holy Spirit, for using us as “tiny pencils in the hands of a mighty writing God!”

Save the Date

Our Vacation Bible School, “Miraculous Mission: Jesus Saves the World” will be held July 22-26 this year. Mark your calendars and let Tracy Deets (440-821-9349 or jtdeets@windstream.net) if you are interested in helping out in any way, have new ideas, etc.
