VISION STATEMENT

St. Mark Lutheran Church glorifies God and makes disciples by making caring connections with the people of our community.

Unusual Thanks

In 1636, amid the darkness of the Thirty Years' War, a German pastor, Martin Rinckart, is said to have buried over five thousand of his parishioners in one year—an average of fifteen a day. His parish was ravaged by war, death, and economic disaster. In the heart of that darkness, with the cries of fear outside his window, he sat down and wrote this table grace for his children:

Now thank we all our God / With heart and hands and voices / Who wondrous things had done / In whom His world rejoices. / Who, from our mother's arms / Hath led us on our way / With countless gifts of love / And still is ours today.

Here was a man who knew thanksgiving comes from love of God, not from outward circumstances.

There may be some of us who are having a pretty hard time giving thanks in 2021. If that's true for you, you're not alone. After hearing your story, most people would probably agree that you don't have much reason for gratitude this November. Then there are people like Martin Rinckart, who find reasons to thank God in the middle of unimaginable horrors. If you're wondering if you could ever be like that, please pay careful attention to the following words written by the apostle Paul to the Philippians:

“Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice! Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near. Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your heart and your minds in Christ Jesus.”

Are there things in your life that make you anxious? Lift them up to God in prayer and give thanks. That's Paul's message. Give thanks before you lift up your concerns. Give thanks while you lift up your concerns. Give thanks after you lift up your concerns. And then what?

Then “the peace that transcends all understanding will guard your heart and minds in Christ Jesus.” The peace that goes beyond understanding is not the absence of trouble, but a presence in our need. It doesn't solve every problem; rather, it guards our hearts and minds in Christ, enabling us to look beyond circumstances to our Savior, and to trust that He has secured our eternal well-being already.

NEWS AND NOTES ABOUT THE CONGREGATION (AND BEYOND!)

From the Newsletter Editor

Even as we come, ever so slowly, out from under the COVID pandemic, we continue to hear about the importance of staying connected with friends and family. Here at St. Mark, we have emails (thank you to Kim Ryan and Chris Meister for getting FYIs and prayer requests out in a timely manner), live streaming of services and other gatherings (thanks to all who organize these), and postings on Facebook (thanks to Debbie Turk who handles our electronic messaging).

And we have this newsletter. It has been a lighter version of The Light over the past 16 months, but I hope it has still been valuable for gathering news into one place where all of our members can see what is happening at St. Mark. Thanks to all who submit articles; this would be nothing but blank pages without your contributions. And thanks to Kelvin Bauermann for taking the copy I send to him and the monthly calendar supplied by Kim and turning them into one document that can be sent out electronically each month.

We send our prayers to Tracy Deets and her family on the death of her father, Rich Johnston. May all who mourn receive God's comfort and peace.

We rejoice with the entire Pavilonis family on the birth of baby Hazel on September 30. May God continue to bless them all.

The dust has settled on the 2021 Rummage Sale. It was a success because of you! Many thanks to all of you who supported the effort. Whether you donated items, worked at the weekly shed parties, helped haul items into the church for the sale, helped to organize the halls, fed the workers, bought items at the sale, put up or took down tables and other furnishings, prayed for our success, or anything else, we thank you! All money raised will be used for missions, to make improvements to our church building, or to help others in the community.

Marti Gildersleeve wishes to express her sincere thanks and praise for all the thoughts and prayers during the recent months. She is very grateful and feels very blessed to have received them.

Ways to Support St. Mark

There are many ways to financially support the ministry of St. Mark. You can donate online (acionlinegiving.com/4549), text a donation (text the amount to 440-709-8049), mail your check to the church office (11900 Chillicothe Road, Chesterland 44026), or drop your donation into the offering plates that can be found at the doors to the sanctuary.

Do you shop at GFS (Gordon's Food Service)? If so, you can support St. Mark by doing what you are already doing! When you are checking out at GFS, please let them know that you are supporting St. Mark Lutheran in Chesterland and we will get credit for your shopping trip, which will save us money on our next trip there.

You can also support St. Mark by shopping at Amazon, Just go to smile.amazon.com and choose Saint Mark Lutheran Church (Chesterland, OH) and then shop – it's that simple!

And you can support our preschool by placing an Avon order with Beth Christopherson (contact information is in the church directory), who will donate 10% of the price of your order to the preschool.

Trinity Food Pantry Non-Perishable Items

The Thanksgiving holiday is at the end of month and there may be a shortage of food in some families' pantries. Let's help them out by donating canned vegetables, canned fruits, soups, stews, pastas, and mac 'n' cheese.

Yoga Is Back!

We all know that we should be going to the gym four times a week. That's not going to happen! However, we can start with some gentle stretches and do good for our body while playing solitaire on an iPad! Our instructor, Sue, is very flexible with her program. Have no fear, chair yoga is here! Join us at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday mornings at St. Mark. Cost is $5.00. If you have any questions, contact Marilyn Meyerholt (contact information in the church directory).

St. Mark has been blessed again with new members. On Sunday, October 10, eight new members were officially recognized at our two services.

Molly Francis, Kendra Rockow, and son George Rockow were taken in by the Rite of Confirmation during our second service. They joined five other members in affirming that they wished to be part of our St. Mark family.

The five other members transferred in from other Lutheran congregations. They were Phil and Debbie Wollaeger (from Trinity Lutheran in Willoughby), Sylvia Fleming (from Trinity Lutheran in Willoughby), and Bart and Donna Pendley (from Bethlehem Lutheran in Parma). All eight attended our Life with God classes before joining.

Between services, the eight new members heard briefly from seven of our key leaders in the church and enjoyed refreshments in the Matthew Room, thanks to the kindness of Sue Brill.

May God grant that they will be a blessing to us and that we will be a blessing to them. Their picture is up in the hallway on one of our main bulletin boards. Get to know them!

Financial Secretary Position Open

St. Mark is in need of somebody to fill the Financial Secretary position. Training on the existing financial tracking and reporting system already in place will be provided. This position is separate from the Treasurer, but the position is critical to the work of the Treasurer and to St. Mark and its membership. If you or someone you know might be interested, please contact Howard Mabel or Chris Powell.

Card Donations Accepted Again

If you have cards starting to arrive again this year, we'll gladly take them off your hands! Any greeting card, calendar, gift wrap, or other items you can't use will be gratefully accepted by the library for resale in our church. Please drop them off in the library, on the table near the door.

GROUP HAPPENINGS

We have received a quote to replace the HVAC system in the office area, including an air purifier. Two windows in Pastor's office need to be replaced due to rot.

St. Mark Preschool is buzzing with activity this month. The seasonal changes are coming to life and the handiwork of God is everywhere.

9 preschoolers are in attendance. Mr. Burke and Mrs. Walkuski are helping the children learn the love of Jesus in stories, songs, and curriculum. Wednesdays are a favorite with Pastor Mark and children's chapel. Fall activities and crafts are incorporated into the Halloween party on October 27. Please continue to keep the preschool in prayer daily.

Try out "A Longer Look at the Lessons" with Pastor Mark in Fellowship Hall. It begins at 9:15 a.m. on Sunday with a warm-up by Vicar Chris. Coffee is always available.

Tuesday Bible Study continues in Romans at 11:00 a.m. in Fellowship Hall. A new lesson is posted each week on St. Mark's Facebook and YouTube pages at the same time, in case you miss a week. It's also a great series to recommend to a friend!

A New Bible Study on Sundays at 10:15 a.m. is "Lutheranism 101," based on the CP book of the same name. It will explore and/or refresh the basics of Lutheran theology (what we believe, teach and confess) and looks into the history and heritage of the Lutheran church. This study seeks to connect what Lutherans believe and what Lutherans do.

Control: To exercise direction influence, power, and authority over conditions.

Humans like to be in control, having the power to choose exactly what is going to happen and when. Unfortunately, life isn't like that – we only think we're in control. So when something happens and we realize we're not in control, we feel lost, overwhelmed, angry, even terrified. Stephen Ministers are trained to help when things are out of control. They provide support and encouragement while helping a person put faith and trust in God.

To find out more about Stephen Ministry, or to receive a Stephen Minister's care, contact Ron Croucher, Sue Matzke or Pastor Matzke. Please do not report a friend's need without first asking his or her permission to do so.

When I said, 'my foot is slipping', your love, O Lord, supports me." Psalm 94:18

Christmas Boutique

Now that the rummage sale is over, we are getting ready for the annual Christmas Boutique. The gently used and regiftable areas are accepting all types of Christmas and gift items that you can no longer use. We also accept items for any holiday to sell. Please drop off your donation in the library by November 7. If you have any questions, contact Lori Cudnik.

Also, jewelry is needed for the Christmas Boutique. We could use Christmas and New Year jewelry (pins, earrings, bracelets, necklaces, etc.). Put any donations in the box marked "Ellen" in the Small Dining Room.
